INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member
Agawam Capital LLC
New York, New York

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Agawam Capital LLC as of December 31, 2002 and the related statements of income, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Agawam Capital LLC as of December 31, 2002, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2002

1- ORGANIZATION

Agawam Capital LLC ("Agawam"), a Delaware Limited Liability Company was formed on June 13, 2001. Agawam was issued a broker/dealer license on January 28, 2002 by the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD").

Agawam was organized to sell private placements and related programs to qualified investors.

Agawam Capital does not maintain any customer accounts, as defined by Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Agawam is therefore exempt from Rule 15c3-3 in accordance with subparagraph (k)(2)(i) thereof.

2- SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Agawam uses the accrual method of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Agawam considers money market instruments with original maturities less than three months (if any) as cash equivalents.

Use Of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Agawam shares office space with its parent Agawam Partners LLC. Agawam entered into a service agreement with Agawam Partners LLC and pays for administrative services.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2002

4- INCOME TAXES

Agawam is a single member LLC. No provision or benefit for income taxes has been included in these financial statements since taxable income or loss passes through to, and is reportable by, the member individually.

5- FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Agawam estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at December 31, 2002, does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying statement of financial condition. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by Agawam using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgement is necessarily required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value, and accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that Agawam could realize in a current market exchange. None of the financial instruments are held for trading purposes.

6- NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Agawam is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (8 to 1 in its first year). In addition, equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2002, Agawam had net capital of $14,444 which was $9,444 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.

SCHEDULE II
AGAWAM CAPITAL LLC
COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS
UNDER RULE 15c3-3 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2002

As Agawam Capital LLC does not hold customer accounts, this schedule is not applicable.

SCHEDULE III
AGAWAM CAPITAL LLC
INFORMATION RELATING TO POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS UNDER RULE 15c3-3 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2002

As Agawam Capital LLC does not hold customer accounts, this schedule is not applicable.

Regen Benz MacKenzie & Anopolsky

To the Member
Agawam Capital LLC
New York, New York

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Agawam Capital LLC. for the year ended December 31, 2002, we considered its internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding customer and firm assets, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by Agawam Capital LLC, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because Agawam Capital LLC does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by Agawam Capital LLC in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examination, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of Agawam Capital LLC is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the above paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of an internal control structure and of the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which Agawam Capital LLC has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessary disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not to be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding customer and firm assets, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that Agawam Capital LLC's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Member, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
